Call to Worship

We gather as the faithful of God, we come to listen to what God has to say to us.

God has invited us to this place:

may our faces reflect our hopes and our hearts.

We gather as the faithful of God, people of the new covenant of grace and of promise.

We humbly enter into the presence of God,

hoping to be transformed into new people.

We come to praise God's holy name.

Immortal, Invisible God Only Wise

Scripture Reading

2 Corinthians 3:12-4:2
(Pew Bible, NT pg. 169)

Call to Reconciliation

Veiled with our indifference, we do not notice the hurts we inflict. Clouded with our fears, we do not realize how we turn away from those in need. Let us confess our lives to the God of glory, who is ready to forgive us.

Unison Prayer of Forgiveness

We would much rather talk about you, God of worship. For if we talk with you, we will discover how falsely we deal with others. We will see ourselves as those who do not live as your own children, but want to do everything our way. We will not realize how often we lose heart, simply because we are afraid to come near you.

Forgive us, Creator of fairness. Remove the veil from our faces, so we might see you in our midst. Take away the mask of our despair, so we might welcome your hope. Open our ears so we might listen to your Beloved, Jesus Christ, and follow him into the world to serve others. (a time for silent prayer)

Declaration of Forgiveness

Do not lose heart. God's forgiving love enables us to move from one degree of hope to the next.

This is the good news for us. Now, with God's hope in us, we can go to share God's glory and grace with those around us. Thanks be to God! Amen.

Lenten Study
 “Creativity and the Creator”

Are you making plans to give up something for Lent? Instead of depriving yourself of coffee or chocolate, why don't you add a spiritual practice and feed your creative soul instead? Join Susan Frith, a published author and member of Park Lake, as she and others lead a six-week adult Sunday School series, “Creativity and the Creator.”

We'll meet Sundays at 9:00 a.m. in the Conference Room in the lower level below the Sanctuary, starting February 14 and running through Easter Sunday. No books needed, except a blank notebook.

We'll explore the arts and creative living through our five senses and more, gaining a deeper appreciation of the gifts our Creator God has given us along with some new ideas for how to use them.

Nursery and Sunday School will be available for children. For more information, please email Susan at sefrith24@gmail.com. Thanks!

Ushers are John Gardepe, Anne Gardepe, Marie Butler, Frank Kaney, John Rachey and Bill Chamberlin.

Sanctuary Flowers are given to the glory of God in honor of Frank Kaney's 79th Birthday on February 4th from his family, Eleanore Kaney, Susan Kaney and Katherine and Glynn Kelley and Phillip Kelley.

A Congregational meeting will be held following worship Sunday, February 14, for the purpose of electing trustees and the congregational nominating committee, and approving the co-pastors' terms of call.
