Call to Worship

On this day of palms and celebration,
Jesus continues his journey with God.

We will go with him, for a while, until he turns towards Calvary.

From the top of Olive Mountain,
Jesus prepares to travel through the valley of heartache and loss.

We will follow Jesus, for a while, cradling hope in our hearts.

In the streets of Jerusalem,
Jesus hears the cries of those who adore him – “Hosanna!”

We will shout Jesus' name, for a while,
until we cry out something very different.

(Pew Bible, NT pg. 78)

Call to Reconciliation

Petty squabbles don't belong in such a story of high drama and sacrifice, but they are there, just as in our lives, along with the other ways we fail to be the disciples of Christ. Please join me as we pray.

Unison Prayer of Confession

Sustainer of the weary, we know how we sang for joy when Christ came into our lives, and how we have not followed him as he leads us on this journey. We have hidden our faces from the pain and suffering of our world. We have turned a deaf ear to the cries of the poor, the hungry, the oppressed. We trust in the slick promotion of the world, and not in your words that can transform our lives.

Forgive us, Steadfast God, and shine your face upon us. Help us to have the same mind as Christ, so we would know your promises; help us to have the same heart as Christ, so we might serve your children; help us to have the same Spirit as Christ, so we might go wherever you lead us.

(Moment of Silent Confession)

Assurance of Pardon

God does not turn away when we fail to be faithful. God does not reject us when we do not trust fully. God continues to love us, to forgive us, to restore us.

It is God who helps us; it is God who saves us. It is all we need or ever will need.
Thanks be to God. Amen.

And it came to pass when the time was come that he should be received up, he steadfastly set his face to Jerusalem. And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees and strewed them in the way. And the multitudes that went before and that followed, cried saying, Hosanna to the Son of David. Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

And when he was come near, he beheld the city and wept over it, saying, If thou had'st known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace, but now they are hid from thine eyes.

Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Who watched while Majesty rode on to die, crying hosanna in a joyous song, could'st thou not heed the distant warning cry of heaven's apprehensive, waiting throng? Hosanna to men's King! Thine acclamations ring, while God the Father veils his face, and God the Son his griefs embrace. Sing thine own griefs, Jerusalem! Jerusalem!

Jesus saith, Father, save me from this hour; but for this cause came I unto this hour. Father, glorify thy name.

Then came there a voice from heaven saying, I have both glorified it and will glorify it again. Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.
