Call to Worship (Psalm 42)

As a deer longs for flowing streams, so my soul longs for you, O God.

My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and behold the face of God?

My tears have been my food day and night, while people say to me continually,
"Where is your God?"

These things I remember, as I pour out my soul: how I went with the throng, and led them in procession to the house of God, with glad shouts and songs of thanksgiving, a multitude keeping festival.

By day the LORD commands his steadfast love, and at night his song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life.

Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.

Call to Confession

Unison Prayer of Confession

Creator God,
You created the earth, whole and round;
You created us to be whole people.
But we have become fragmented, cracked and broken.
We have been broken by false promises,
lost relationships, shattered trust.
We have become cracked with the experience of systemic sin:
prejudice, oppression and fear.
We have become fragmented,
building up walls instead of lending hands.
Forgive us when we have done the breaking,
heal us where we have been hurt.
Let Your light shine through our cracks and scars
so that we might bring light to the world, showing that in You we are made whole.
In You we find healing.
In You we find renewed life.
Help us to forgive, to love, to mend.
(moment of silent confession)

Declaration of Pardon

God is the Potter, we are the Clay.
When we are cracked and broken,
God helps to bring us back together.
Sometimes we don't feel the same afterwards,
but God uses every piece,
and offers us the newness of life to begin again.

Thanks be to God for God's steadfast and healing love for the world.
