Call to Worship

God is calling us into new and sometimes uncomfortable places.

Once there, we find hospitality and friends.

Christ has brought the love of the Father and given us his peace.

The Holy Spirit is giving us the strength to go forth and do our work.

The Son has laid out our tasks and given us legs to walk again.

May we drink from the waters of your river of life today. Let us worship our Lord.

Prayer of Praise and Adoration

*Hymn of Praise No. 474

O Splendor of God's Glory Bright

Scripture Reading

Revelation 21:10, 22-27 and 22:1-5
(Pew Bible, NT pg. 244)

Call to Confession

We come before our God confessing when we have ignored the living waters and walked away from the tree of life. Let us confess our sins.

Unison Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, we forget that in You we have our life and being. We all too easily ignore that You also created the stranger on the street and across the world, whom Jesus calls our brothers and sisters. We say that we love You but forget to keep Your word. We rush by those in need without even a thought that they could be our friends. Lord, forgive us, and help us focus back on You. Help us heal the world around us that we have been neglecting. Help us learn once again to walk Your way.
(a time of silent confession)

Declaration of Pardon

Dear ones, the Holy Spirit is with you, surrounding you, strengthening you, and pushing you on. You are always being offered new life. Today I declare to you that, in the name of Jesus Christ, the gates are open, God welcomes you back. Live into the fullness of life that comes with that assurance.
