Call to Worship

Come, worship God,

Who of old is the same and forever true.

Come, offer your praise to God,

Who shows up in new ways and always with justice.

Come, let us magnify our God,

Who alone is worthy of our souls' delight and our lives allegiance.

Call to Confession

God does not take our sins and stick them up on a shelf, in order to remember them - God forgets them! God does not hold them against us, but forgives us! Join me as we pray to the One who delights in us, as we say,

Unison Prayer of Confession

We confess that our lives weaken us, God of Strength. We do not exercise our faith as we should, and so fatigue easily. We see our houses as investment property, not as homes built on love, hope, and dreams. We whimper our complaints about our friends and families, rather than shouting our hosannas to heaven for the gift of their lives.

But, You are our hope, Tender God. Forgive us. Create in us new hearts, and fill us with new energy to serve You by serving those around us. Renew our spirits as the Church of Jesus Christ. Strengthen us to bring the thirsty to the deep wells of salvation, where they can fill their parched souls, even as others have led us to know Jesus as our own Lord and Savior.

(moment of silent confession)

Declaration of Forgiveness

Rather than remaining white hot, God’s anger melts into streams of living water, washing us clean of our sins and refreshing our spirits with hope and joy.

This day! This day we give thanks to the God who is our strength and our salvation. Praise God! Amen.

SENDING

Litany of Dedication for Capital Campaign and 2017 Pledges

We pledge these offerings to God

... for the preaching of Jesus’ good news for the world,

... for the glory of God in song,

... for the leading of each child to the knowledge of God's love.

We pledge ourselves to participate in the mending of broken spirits caring for the poor, the healing of creation through justice.

We offer these gifts before God as promise

... to this community, to the wider mission, and to the hopes of this church,

... and to the abundant, extravagant, all embracing reign of God, whose presence people of faith can glimpse even here and now.

May our planning be wise. May our spending be faithful.
May our giving be always joyful.
We ask these things in the name of Jesus, who opens hearts and hands for the sake of abundant life in the world's every corner. Amen

*Hymn No. 555

Now Thank We All Our God

At this time, you may bring your pledge cards forward to place in the basket on the chancel.

Choir Offertory Text

Sing Unto the Lord

David Stanley York, 1976

words by Albert F. Bayly

*Sing, sing unto the Lord. Sing, sing unto him. Sing unto the Lord all the earth.
Sing, sing unto him. Sing unto the Lord and bless his name.*

*When the morning stars together their creator's glory sang;
And thy people, O God, all shouted till with joy the heavens rang;*

*Then thy wisdom and thy greatness their exultant music told,
All the beauty and the splendor which thy mighty works unfold.
When in synagogue or temple, voices raised the psalmist's songs,
Offering the adoration which to thee alone belongs,*

*When the singers and the cymbals with the trumpet made accord,
Glory filled the house of worship and all knew thy presence, Lord.
Voice and instrument in union through the ages spoke thy praise,
Plainsong, tuneful hymns or anthems told thy faithful, gracious ways.*

*Choir and orchestra and organ, each a sacred offering brought;
While inspired by thine own spirit, poet and composer wrought.
Lord, we bring our gift of music; touch our lips and fire our heart;
Teach our mind and train our senses; fit us for this sacred art.*

*Then with skill and consecration we would serve thee, Lord, and give
All our powers to glorify thee and in serving fully live.
Sing, sing unto the Lord. Sing, sing unto him. Sing unto the Lord, all the earth.
Sing unto him. Sing unto the Lord and bless his name.
Amen.*
