Introit

Let Us Sing and Praise the Lord

Traditional African Folksong

Call to Worship (Lamentations 3, Psalm 137)

Sing to the Lord, whose mercy is from everlasting to everlasting!

But how can we sing the Lord's song when so many are without?

Sing to the Lord, whose faithfulness renews us every morning!

But how can we sing the Lord's song when so many are missing?

Sing to the Lord, who has not forgotten the melodies of salvation!

Let us remember the joy of the Lord, and sing a new song together!

Call to Confession

Faith, hope, love have all been passed on to us, not so we can hold back these gifts for ourselves, but so we might share them. Let us lift our prayers to God who is always ready to give us the strength to serve when our first reaction is to hesitate.

Unison Prayer of Confession

God of all the world, the media cries out with the voices of our neighbors, your children, around the world, but it is difficult to listen. The need is too great, too much and we don't feel we have enough to give. We do not always notice the bitter tears of others, nor understand those who are broken by the anger and brutality of the world.

Yet, you know, Holy Comforter. You hear the cries of those living in oppression, and You call us to listen. Your tears mingle with those whose lives are shaken in war zones. You want us be peacemakers. Your faithfulness is great when ours seems so small. Incredibly you trust us to serve the world alongside your Servant, Jesus. We admit we are overwhelmed and confused about whether we could possibly make a difference. Hear our prayer.

(moment of silent confession)

Declaration of Forgiveness

Call this to mind: God is ever faithful; faith is the gift passed on to us, love is the gift we can share with others; God's mercies never come to an end.

Great is God's faithfulness to all people, in all places. Thanks be to God, who has given us the promise of life in Christ Jesus our Lord! Amen.
