Call to Worship (Psalm 1)

Come let us delight in the ways of the God!

Happy are those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or take the path that sinners tread, or sit in the seat of scoffers;
 but their delight is in the law of the Lord,
 On God's law they meditate day and night.

Come let us be nourished by the Living Water.

They are like trees planted by streams of water, which yield their fruit in its season, and their leaves do not wither.
 In all that they do, they prosper.

Come, let us open our hearts to God's compassionate love.

Let us celebrate God's mercy and justice.

Prayer of Praise and Adoration

Call to Confession

God’s love is steadfast and God’s faithfulness endures from age to age. Our own love stumbles and our faithfulness waxes and wanes from day to day. Let us confess our sin and our need for God.

Prayer of Confession

O God of love,

We confess our failure to love you, to love our neighbor, and even our failure to love ourselves. Forgive us.

You have set us free to serve you, but we serve our own interests.

You have delivered us from captivity, but we remain captive to our fear.

Enable us to see each other, and ourselves, as your beloved children.

Help us abide in, and be nourished by, your abundant love so we may bear good fruit in a world starving for love, justice, and mercy.

(silent prayers of confession)

Declaration of Forgiveness

Sisters and brothers, God is at work in us and with us!

The glory that God has manifested in Jesus Christ is given to us even now so that we may live and love as one, for in Christ, we are one.

The promise of God is true and trustworthy: We are forgiven in Jesus Christ.

Thanks be to God!

All who are able may stand

The Sanctuary flowers this day are given to the Glory of God by Cris Stalder and Laurel Bookhardt, in honor of their mother, Pat Stalder’s 90th birthday, today, May 13.

May Ushers are Shawn Moloney, Mike Bookhardt, Bob Larr, Larry Welker, Eric Wood and Don DeBevoise.

Congratulations

Rev. (Dr.) Robert W. Gray, pastor emeritus of Park Lake, is celebrating the 65th anniversary of his ordination as Minister of Word and Sacrament on May 15.

Wake Forest University's award-winning male Christian acapella ensemble, Chi Rho, is very excited to be touring in Orlando, Florida and worshipping with Park Lake Presbyterian Church this Mother's Day! Founded in 1992 by a group of Wake Forest students that saw a need for a music-based ministry on campus, the group has recorded more than a dozen albums over the past 26 years and has shared its music and ministry throughout the United States. Chi Rho has also toured internationally in France and in a missionary role in Zambia.

The group's name, which is pronounced "Kai Ro," is formed by the first two letters of the Greek spelling of Christ. While these letters appear on Wake Forest University's seal, they are most important because wherever the group goes, they will literally bear the name of Christ. Chi Rho is founded upon the tenets of music, ministry and brotherhood, facets which are treated as equal in their importance. But above all, Chi Rho seeks to share the love of God to with many people as it can, in as many ways possible.

Bob was ordained in 1953 to serve First Presbyterian Church (Everett, MA). He has since served Mullins Presbyterian Church (SC); Black Mountain Presbyterian Church (NC); Park Lake Presbyterian Church (Orlando, FL); Highland Presbyterian Church (Fayetteville, NC). In retirement, he has continued to serve at Winter Park Presbyterian Church (FL); Covenant Presbyterian Church (Atlanta) and most recently Morningside Presbyterian Church (Atlanta). Bob recalls with fondness his special days in Orlando and his 19 years of ministry at Park Lake PC. He has said that Park Lake has been his favorite!

Robert is 91 years of age doing well as he approaches his 92nd birthday (August 13, 2018). His health is very good and intellect, attitude and spirituality splendid.
