Call to Worship (Psalm 145)

All your works shall give thanks to you, O LORD, and all your faithful shall bless you.

They shall speak of the glory of your kingdom, and tell of your power, to make known to all people your mighty deeds, and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.

Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations.

The LORD is faithful in all his words, and gracious in all his deeds.

The LORD is just in all his ways, and kind in all his doings.

The LORD is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.

Call to Confession
Prayer of Confession

Lord, we spend so much time chasing after one thing or another:
possessions, personal recognition, acceptance, happiness, excitement.
But nothing ever seems to satisfy us.
We constantly compare ourselves to others and want whatever they have.
We don't see everything already piled up around us.
We are driven by fear that someone else will take what we have,
that we won't get what we deserve, that we will lose and someone else will win.
We don't trust that you are enough, that in you there is enough for everyone.
Lord, forgive our selfishness and self-centeredness we can't seem to turn away from.
May your Spirit turn us, once again, to you. (silent prayers of confession)

Declaration of Forgiveness (Ephesians 3:19-21)

This is the promise of the Gospel: that you will "know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God." God is at work in you, able to do more than you can imagine.

Thanks be to God! In Jesus Christ we are forgiven and filled with new life.

The image of a great feast showing God's welcome of all people was part of Jewish tradition (Isaiah 25:6-9) and underlies Jesus' parable of the Great Banquet (Luke 14:15-24). Such equality remains as unknown to many people today as it was to the slaves who created this spiritual.
