Call to Worship (Psalm 19)

The heavens are telling the glory of God; and the firmament proclaims his handiwork.

Day to day pours forth speech, and night to night declares knowledge.

There is no speech, nor are there words; their voice is not heard;

yet their voice goes out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world.

The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul;

the decrees of the LORD are sure, making wise the simple;

the precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the LORD is clear, enlightening the eyes;

the fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever; the ordinances of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey, and drippings of the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is your servant warned;
in keeping them there is great reward.

Scripture Reading James 3:1-12(Pew Bible, NT pg. 216)

Call to Confession

The psalmist asks, "Who can detect their own errors?" (Psalm 19:12)
Let us pray relying on God's grace to help us acknowledge our sin and seek God's forgiveness.

Prayer of Confession

God, the heavens shout your glory; the skies attest to your handiwork.
Your commands are good and the way to life for us.
But our lives, daily show our faults and hidden errors.
We ignore what you command; we choose our own way over your way.
We are prideful and arrogant, that our way is always the best.
We talk in ways that are puffed up and self-promoting.
We are careless with our words - we don't care who they hurt, we tell lies rather than the truth, we praise the un-praiseworthy, and we are afraid to speak in ways that will help us honor you with our lives.
Lord, forgive us, for the words that come out of our mouths and hearts that don't reflect your living Word, Jesus Christ.

(silent prayers of confession)

Declaration of Forgiveness

James declares, "Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. In fulfilment of his own purpose he gave us birth by the word of truth, so that we would become a kind of first fruits of his creatures. In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven!

"Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable to you, O LORD, my rock and my redeemer." (Psalm 19:14)

O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee Henry Percy Smith, 1874
Chancel Choir Words by Washington Gladden, 1879
Arranged by Tom Birchwood, 1988

O Master, let me walk with thee, in lowly paths of service free;
Tell me thy secret, help me bear the strain of toil, the fret of care.
Help me the slow of heart to move by some clear, winning word of love;
Teach me the wayward feet to stay, and guide them on the homeward way.
Teach me thy patience; still with thee in closer, dearer company,
In work that keeps faith sweet and strong, in trust that triumphs over wrong.
In hope that sends a shining ray far down the future's broadening way,
In peace that only thou canst give, with thee, O Master, let me live.

This year's theme rises from the events surrounding Jesus' birth and Mary's own wondering at her key role in them. Luke says, "Mary pondered all these things in her heart." Mary would go on pondering her son throughout his life as she is caught up in the wonder and sadness and surprise of it. Theme: Favorite Christmas Memories. Why are they your favorite? Where was God in the midst of them? What was God doing with YOU in the midst of these events that you remember? 300 word limit, please. If you are interested please contact Helen DeBevoise at helenparklake@gmail.com.
