Call to Confession

We cannot claim ignorance of our sins, because we know how we have not lived as God's people. Yet, God refuses to turn away from us. God is waiting to forgive us and call us as God's children. Please join me as we pray, saying,

Unison Prayer of Confession

Loving God, we cannot remain silent, but must admit the ways we misuse your gifts. In our desire to have more and more, we create more damage to your good creation. In our obsession with ourselves, we have forgotten the lives of those around us. When we hoard what you have given us, we cannot be a blessing to other people.

Forgive us, God of all people, so we might be restored to life. May your steadfast love save and strengthen us to share our gifts with others, even as you have shared with us the Gift of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

(Silence is kept)

Declaration of Forgiveness

God delights in you. So much, that God will not rest until you are at peace. God will not remain silent, but will call you by name: 'My Delight.'

God's steadfast love extends to the heavens, and reaches down to touch our hearts. Thanks be to God who forgives and saves us! Amen.

May Your Roots Go Deep

David Lantz III, 2004

Chancel Choir

Words by Herb Frombach,

Barbara Kaminsky, flute

based on Ephesians 3:17-19

May your roots go deep into the soil, the soil of God’s marvelous love.
And may you be able to feel and understand, as all God’s children should,
How long, how wide, how deep and how high his love truly is, Christ’s love truly is.

May your roots go deep into the soil, the soil of God’s marvelous love.
Love so great that you will never fully know or understand
How long, how wide, how deep and how high his love truly is, Christ’s love truly is.

And so at last you will be filled up with God himself.

This text was inspired by how the prophet Hosea describes the parental nature of God's relationship with Israel (Hosea 11:1-19). The last stanza echoes Christ's teachings about love of neighbor (Matthew 22:37-40 / Mark 12:29-31) and care for "the least of these" (Matthew 25:31-46).
