

Our guest organist today is Carla Edwards. Carla was a professor of organ, theory, and history at DePauw University in Greencastle Indiana for 30 years. She has performed concerts in the US, England, Finland, and has recorded several CDs. Now that she is retired, she is enjoying cooking, reading, and learning to accompany silent movies.

Our guest soloist today is Pamela Coburn. Pamela spent over 18 years based in Munich Germany singing opera and solo concerts. Being based in Munich allowed her to travel, singing operas and concerts in Germany, France, Japan, China, Spain, and Austria. She also sang in the US at the Metropolitan Opera and with many symphony orchestras, including the New York Philharmonic. Pamela taught at DePauw University in Greencastle Indiana for 13 years as a visiting distinguished professor of voice.

February Ushers are John Gardepe, Anne Gardepe, Marie Butler, Frank Kaney, John Rachev and Bill Chamberlin.

Call to Worship

Happy are those who follow the ways of the Lord.

God's ways are just and merciful.

Those who follow God's ways are continually nourished in faith.

In all that they do, they prosper.

Come, let us open our hearts to God's compassionate love.

Let us celebrate God's mercy and justice.

Call to Confession (1 John 1:8-9)

If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. In humility and faith let us confess our sin to God.

Unison Prayer of Confession

O God, our protector, we take refuge in You;
You alone are the source of all our good.
We confess that we have run after other powers.
You sustain us and lead us in good and pleasant ways.
We confess that we have trusted in false wisdom
and set our hearts on short-sighted desires.
Forgive us, we pray.
Let our hearts be glad, our spirits rejoice,
in the way You set before us.
In Christ You show us the path of life;
You welcome us into the joy of your presence;
You feed us with pleasures forevermore.

(time of silent prayer)

Declaration of Forgiveness

Jesus said, "I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing...As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love." Believe the good news: Christ's love for us overcomes and heals our sin.

Thanks be to God! In Jesus Christ we forgiven.

Arr. by Joel Raney, 2002

One thing I'm sure of, one thing I know. God walks beside me wherever I go.
He'll never leave me; he's there to stay. God holds my hand, he lights my way.

God's love is perfect, his arms are strong. He's right here with me; I'm not alone.
When my heart's broken, he's there to mend. He is my Savior, he is my Friend.

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine! O what a foretaste of glory divine.
Watching and waiting, looking above, filled with his goodness, lost in his love.
This is my story, this is my song, praising my Savior all the day long.

There will be an Annual Congregational Meeting today, immediately following the worship service, for the purpose of electing a Congregational Nominating Committee, electing a board of trustees, and approving the Co-pastors' terms of call.

2019 Mission Fair Week
Sunday, February 24, Guest Preacher, Ebralie Mwizerwa
 9:00 am, Combined Sunday school class
 10:30 am, Worship

A native of Rwanda, East Africa, Ebralie Mwizerwa moved to Nashville several years ago to become part of the First Presbyterian Church of Nashville congregation.

Ebralie earned a B.A. in Business Administration and Management from Daystar University in Nairobi, Kenya and a M.A. in Economics from Vanderbilt University in Nashville, TN.

She joined The Outreach Foundation 15 years ago where she devotes her time focusing on strengthening communication with global mission partners, projects development and implementation, as well as projects monitoring and evaluation, advising partners for self reliance and accountability. Ebralie worked for churches in Africa for over 10 years in various management roles before moving to Nairobi after surviving the 1994 genocide in Rwanda.

Her desire is to see vulnerable communities reaching a more sustainable life. She travels frequently to Africa, including Zambia, Zimbabwe, Uganda and Kenya, as well as her native Rwanda. She has a particular passion for children and women: cornerstones for developing a nation and reaching quality of life for families. She believes God called her, equipped and blessed her to proclaim the Good News that transforms lives and impacts communities.

Life Motto: To know Christ, to Love Him dearly, and to Exhibit His Love in word and deed.
