Call to Worship

Do you feel it? God's kingdom is beneath our feet.

We live in the new creation shaped by God out of our brokenness.

Do you know it? God's reconciling love in Christ has shattered our ways of viewing people.

No longer do we label our sisters and brothers,
we welcome them with open arms.

Do you believe it? God has made everything, including us, new, and sends us forth to share this good news with everyone!

Prayer of Praise and Adoration

Scripture Reading

Luke 15:1-3, 11b-32

Pew Bible, NT, p.73

Dominic Boitano, 2019 Confirmation Class

Call to Confession

We know our faults -- the way we have treated others, our alienation from God, our unwillingness to be faithful people. We will not hide our sin or remain silent, but confess them to the One who surrounds us with steadfast love.

Please join me as we pray, saying,

Unison Prayer of Confession

On this very day, Waiting God, we admit the lengths to which we go to avoid you. You offer us a kingdom of joy and wonder, yet we hide in places where temptation waits. You invite us to feast on your grace and peace, but we stubbornly refuse, because you also welcome those we call 'outsiders.' We are quick to see all the mistakes that those around us make, but hope you will ignore our foolish choices.

Celebrating God, before we come to our senses, we find you running towards us, sweeping us up in your arms, tears of grace mingling with our cries of confession, a mighty river washing away our sinful ways to restore us to new life. In Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, we find no limitations on your grace, no reservations about your love, but a feast that overflows with wonder, a place we can finally call home.

(silent prayers of confession)

Declaration of Forgiveness

God rolls away everything that stands in our way - our past, our sin, our pain, our hesitation, and reshapes us into new people living in the new creation. What wonderful grace. We are forgiven!

Broken, we are made whole; lost, we are brought home; empty, we are filled with songs of gladness. We rejoice and give thanks to God who has graced us with mercy. Amen.

Come Ye Sinners

Southern Folk Tune,

Chancel Choir arranged by George M.D. Frink, 1973

Words by Joseph Hart

Come, ye sinners, poor and needy, weak and wounded, sick and sore.

Jesus ready stands to save you, full of pity, love, and power.

I will arise and go to Jesus. He will embrace me in his arms.

In the arms of my dear Saviour, oh, there are ten thousand charms.

Come, ye thirsty, come and welcome. God’s free bounty glorify.

True belief and true repentance, every grace that brings you nigh.

Come, ye weary, heavy laden, lost and ruined by the Fall.

If you tarry till you’re better, you will never come at all.

I will arise and go to Jesus. He will embrace me in his arms.

In the arms of my dear Saviour, oh, there are ten thousand charms.

Guitar chords do not correspond with keyboard harmony.

Though a lack of punctuation makes this text appear freeform and the flowing tune enhances a sense of movement, each stanza here is firmly anchored by a final weighty word (praise, save, thanks, life, peace, home), a sign of God's eternal presence in an ever-changing world.
