 God! Let people thank and enjoy You.

Call to Confession
How easily we learn of God's love - but how hard it is to live it! The world distracts us with its easy choices, while we know how intentional we must be to love one another. Join me as we confess our failures to love and as we open our hearts to God, saying,

Unison Prayer of Confession
Because you dwell in our hearts, Eternal God, you know how the anger, the pain, the bitterness of our lives try to crowd you out. The noise of the world deafens us to that Word which can heal us. We want our children to be good, kind, and gentle to others, and then they hear us call others names, and speak of them with demeaning words. Our desire for revenge towards those who have hurt us shows that your peace, indeed, is not in us.

You promise a new heaven and a new earth, so create new spirits and new lives within us, Healing God. Shattered by our sin, your heart can still heal our brokenness. Your Spirit, living deep within our souls, can teach us faithful ways. Your Word, Jesus Christ our Lord, whispers to us of your mercy, your hope, your love.
(moment for silent confession)

Declaration of Forgiveness
The Word which can transform us is not some idle gossip, but good news for us. It fills us with forgiveness, equips us for service, and sends us forth to love others as God loves us.
In our midst, the Holy Spirit teaches us all we need to know, gives us what we need in order to be faithful, and fills us with peace. Thanks be to God!

Chancel Choir Arranged by Lloyd Larson, 2009

You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord, who abide in his shadow for life, say to the Lord, "My refuge, my Rock in whom I trust!"
(Refrain) And he will raise you up on eagle's wings, bear you on the breath of dawn, make you to shine like the sun, and hold you in the palm of his hand.
The snare of the fowler will never capture you, and famine will bring you no fear; under his wings your refuge, his faithfulness your shield. (Refrain)
You need not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day; though thousands fall about you, near you it shall not come. (Refrain)

A Note from:
Anne Gardepe and
The Koinonia Sunday School Class

To the Park Lake Chancel Choir,
Will Benton and Robb Ross:

A couple of weeks ago when Melahn and David mentioned honoring you in a special way, our Koinonia Sunday school class responded with great enthusiasm. The truth is we are all so very grateful for what you bring to our church but possibly don't express it well enough or often enough. So as you get ready for a well-deserved break, I will give it a try.

How does the Chancel Choir and music programs bless Park Lake Presbyterian Church? Here are just some of the ways:

- ♦ You enrich our worship services by sharing your time and talents so generously.
- ♦ Your passion for music is inspiring as you touch our hearts and stir our souls. Sometimes your message stays in our heads even after the service.
- ♦ You nourish our faith and enhance our spiritual lives.
- ♦ We doubt there is a better organist or choir director anywhere than Will Benton and Robb Ross.
- ♦ In the words of the Psalmist, "you make a joyful noise unto the Lord", and we are beneficiaries, as well.

The Koinonia class asked me to speak for them but I believe I represent the whole congregation in saying thank you for sharing your special gifts with all of us!

May God bless you.

To Mars and Beyond:

New Hymnal Dedications

We are using new hymnals in worship today.

Glory to God is the new Presbyterian hymnal, published in 2013. It contains 853 hymns, psalms, and songs. About 400 hymns are carried over from the 1990 blue hymnal—including most of the hymns we sing at Park Lake. There are more than 450 new hymns that come from older Presbyterian hymnals, other songbooks, and individual composers and authors. Glory to God includes a complete Psalter of singable Psalms and enough music for a complete Taizé service. There are liturgical texts to serve as a model for Reformed worship, and a brief note is included with each hymn, providing information about its music, theology, or history. Glory to God reflects the diversity of the church, incorporating many different musical styles: traditional, spirituals, folk, gospel, jazz, contemporary, and global music are all well-represented. Digital and projection versions are also available.

You can donate a new hymnal(s) for $20 per hymnal.

Each hymnal donated will include an dedication plate on the front cover with the name of the person(s) you would like to honor or remember and the person(s) making the donation.

On the reverse side of this insert you will see a example of the dedication plate.
If you would like to donate a hymnal(s) please fill in the lines with the name(s) of those being remembered or honored and the name(s) of those making the donation.
Please circle either “In Honor of” or “In Memory of”.

You may place the insert in the collection plate or return it to the church office.
If you are attaching a check as payment, please write in the memo line, “New Hymnal donation.”

If you would like an old blue hymnal, “The Presbyterian Hymnal”, they are in the East Transept and available for you to take.

For more information please contact the church office.
