Call to Worship

God of the past who whispered in the prophets' ears;
 who rescued us from sin's slavery:

we are here to thank you.

God of the future, who is tearing down the old world,
 and building your kingdom in our midst:

we are here because we trust you.

God of the present who, in the giftedness of our diversity,
 creates us to be one people:

we are here to praise you.

God of life that surprises us when we find it within us:

we celebrate your grace.

Call to Confession

When we could be revived by God’s grace, we find ourselves fearing God’s judgment, doubting God’s joy in us, fearing God has turned away from us. Let us come to the One who heals us and calls each of us by name. Please join me as we pray.

Unison Prayer of Confession

God You know us inside and out and You know our best selves and our worst ones. You know how we have muted the cries of those thrown aside by the world, and You know those places where we have been generous. You know those moments we have lashed out at those with whom we disagree, and You know those moments where our hearts were stilled and we were able to listen more than talk. You know where we have intentionally chosen our way over Yours, and those moments when we have found ourselves in tears at Your feet.

Continue to teach us better ways of living and doing, God of grace. You gather us from our foolishness, so we might be led into acts of mercy. You redeem us from our mistakes to we might bend down and feed those who hunger for hope. Your compassion, so warm and tender, is gifted to us through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, in whose name we pray.

(time of silent prayer)

Declaration of Forgiveness

Do not be afraid. More than anything else, God would rather turn wasteland into pools of crystal clear water; bonds of sin into cords of compassion; sinners into servants. God loves us. God forgives us. God lifts us to new life. Thanks be to God. Amen.
