Call to Worship

The foolish say, 'there is no God'.

We come, trusting in Jesus, the face, the voice,

The presence of the God who loves us.

The scoffers of our age ask, 'why do you seek after God?'

We come, in this time,

Because God's grace has spilled over in our lives.

The hopeless around us think, 'no one cares about me'.

We come, in this time, to this place,

Because Jesus has found us and brought us home.

Call to Confession

Which of us has hurt someone this week intentionally or not? Which of us has spoken (or thought) ill of a sister or brother in Christ? Which of us has failed to do good when given the chance? All of us and each of us! But Christ came to redeem people just like us, so I invite you to join me as we offer our prayers to God:

Unison Prayer of Confession

Holy God, we have believed we are experts at faithfulness, but we must confess those moments when we failed to do good for others. There are times we turn a deaf ear to the cries of people we have judged to be fools. There are times we have scoffed at those we believe have nothing to teach us or share with us. How foolish we are, Searching God, forgive us, and bring us back under Your guidance. Then, send us out to search for all who sit in the shadowed corners of our world, yearning for someone to come and find them, even as Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, came to find us. (moment for silent prayer and confession)

Kyrie No. 576

Lord, Have Mercy congregation sings twice

Declaration of Forgiveness

Our actions sometimes reveal we do not know God. Our words and lives show we do not understand God's hopes for us. But with utmost patience, God sets aside our foolishness, and fills us with mercy.

Mingled with faith and love, grace is poured into our thirsty souls, giving us new life, restoring us as God's children. Thanks be to God. Amen
