Call to Confession

The proof of God’s amazing love is this: While we were sinners Christ died for us. Because we have faith in him, we dare to approach God with confidence. In faith and penitence, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

Unison Prayer of Confession

Lord you call us to be salt of the earth and the light of the world.
You expect our lives to be examples of your love, justice, and peace.
As we think of the ways we have lived the past week,
we see our habits of indifference, we remember how we live without zest,
without passion, without energy and enthusiasm for you.
We confess how comfortable we are with the lack of difference we make.
We are afraid to upset the status quo.
We are afraid to risk opposition and hostility from our friends and neighbors.
Forgive us for keeping silent when we could have spoken your truth.
Forgive us for looking the other way,
when we could have stopped to help in your name.
Forgive us for calling ourselves Christian,
even when we failed to do anything Christ-like at all.

(time of silent prayer)

Declaration of Forgiveness

Hear the good news! The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, that we might be dead to sin, and alive to all that is good. I declare to you in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

Thanks be to God! In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

Offertory

Arise, O God, and Shine
Chancel Choir

Arise, O God, and shine in all thy saving might,
And prosper each design to spread thy glorious light.
Let healing streams of mercy flow, that all the earth thy truth may know.

Bring distant nations near to sing thy glorious praise;
Let every people hear and learn thy holy ways.
Reign, mighty God, assert thy cause, and govern by thy righteous laws.

Put forth thy glorious power that Gentiles all may see,
And earth present her store in converts born to thee.
O Lord, our God, thy church so bless, and fill the world with righteousness.

To God, the only wise, the one immortal King,
Let hallelujahs rise from every living thing;
Let all that breathe, on every coast, praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
