Call to Worship
Ashes have been smeared and sins have been confessed.
These times, they are troubling. This journey, it is hard.
It is God who sustains, not the temptations of this world.
In the Lord is our trust, our protection from harm.
Come, let us worship the One whom we serve.
We follow our faithful Lord.

Prayer of Praise and Adoration

Call to Confession (Psalm 32:1-5)

Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

Happy are those to whom the Lord imputes no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit.

While I kept silence, my body wasted away through my groaning all day long.

For day and night your hand was heavy upon me;
my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer.

Then I acknowledged my sin to you, and I did not hide my iniquity;

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord,"
and you forgave the guilt of my sin.

Unison Prayer of Confession

In your presence, O God, we confess how we fall for lies that prey upon our insecurities;
how we deny our limits and our need of you;
how we desire things other than what you graciously bestow;
how we wander from your ways and disregard your love.
Forgive us, we pray. Surround us with the abundance of your grace and the free gift of your righteousness, so that we may be content, abiding in you.

(time of silent prayers of confession)

Declaration of Forgiveness (1 Timothy 1:15; 1 Peter 2:24)

Hear the good news! The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, that we might be dead to sin, and alive to all that is good. I declare to you in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

Thanks be to God! In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

That in Your spirit strong and true, their lives may be a gift to You.

Offertory                                      Into the Woods My Master Went                      Alec Rowley, 1957
Chancel Choir                              Words by Sidney Lanier, 1842-1881

Into the woods my Master went, clean forspent, forspent.
Into the woods my Master went, forspent with love and shame,
but the olives they were not blind to him,
and the little gray leaves were kind to him,
the thorn tree had a mind to him when into the woods he came.

Out of the woods my Master went, and he was well content.
Out of the woods my Master came, content with Death and Shame.
When Death and Shame would woo him last,
from under the trees they drew him last,
'twas on a tree they slew him last when out of the woods he came.
