As the author / composer reminds us in the refrain, the Spirit is both gentle and restless. The stanzas reinforce a sense of the Spirit's activity through a wide range of verbs, initially in the past tense; but they become more urgent in the present tense of the fourth stanza.

Call to Confession

When we don't know how or what to pray, the Spirit knows. When all we can muster are sighs and groans, the Spirit knows those also. When we feel that we aren't even worthy to approach God, the Spirit goes before us and with us and God welcomes us with arms open. Let us confess our sins together, saying . . .

Unison Prayer of Confession

Almighty God, you poured your Spirit upon gathered disciples creating bold tongues, open ears, and a new community of faith. We confess that we hold back the force of your Spirit among us. We do not listen for your word of grace, speak the good news of your love, or live as a people made one in Christ. Have mercy on us, O God. Transform our timid lives by the power of your Spirit, and fill us with a flaming desire to be your faithful people, doing your will for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.

(moment of silent prayer)

Declaration of Forgiveness

By faith and grace we know that whenever we get together again, we will be refreshed by the Spirit moving with us, and by given to us in Jesus Christ. This is the hope that moves us into the future, affirming Christ in ourselves and one another.

Thanks be to God whose Spirit renews and stirs us to begin again.

Passing of the Peace

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Hymn No. 286

Breathe on Me, Breath of God

1 Breathe on me, Breath of God; fill me with life a - new,
 2 Breathe on me, Breath of God, un - til my heart is pure,
 3 Breathe on me, Breath of God, till I am whol - ly thine,
 4 Breathe on me, Breath of God, so shall I nev - er die, that I may love what thou dost love, and do what thou wouldst do.

 un - til with thee I will one will, to do and to en - dure.
 un - til this earth - ly part of me glows with thy fire di - vine.
 but live with thee the per - fect life of thine e - ter - ni - ty.

In both Hebrew and Greek, the words for "spirit" can equally well be translated as "breath" or "wind," so it is very appropriate to address the Holy Spirit as the "Breath of God." This tune by an English organist has become the customary one in North American hymnals.

Refrain

Come, come, come, Ho - ly Spir - it, come.
 Njo - o, njo - o, nj - oo, Ro - ho mwe - ma.

Originally written for the uniting of the Lutheran churches in Tanzania, this prayerful hymn touches on the need of the whole church at all times for the Holy Spirit's guidance and blessing. When appropriate, the refrain can effectively be used alone as a prayer response.

The Sanctuary flowers today, are given to the glory of God, in memory of Richard S. and Adria “Nell” Sanborn by their loving family.

2020 Koinonia Scholarship Fund

*"An investment in knowledge pays the best interest."
Benjamin Franklin*

This is the 20th year that the Koinonia Sunday School has offered college scholarships to the youth of the church. Twenty-six students have received help through this program. Among past recipients are:

- Richmond Darko, lead urgent care physician at the Nicklaus Children's Health System in Miami
- Phillip Kelley, an attorney practicing in Ocala
- Jody Mask, pastor at Markham Presbyterian Church.

In previous years the class has hosted a dinner plus entertainment and the introduction of the recipients. Due to COVID-19, there will be no dinner this year. But the class would like to invite you to donate as you are able to help this year. We have seven applications at this point. You may donate on the Park Lake web page or with a check mailed to the church. Please specify that the donation is for the scholarship.

To apply for a Koinonia scholarship, please email Judy Cook judycook830@gmail.com to request an application and return as soon as possible.
