Everyone who saw this grumbled, saying that Jesus was going to be the guest of a sinner.

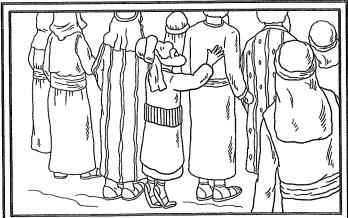

Jesus rejoiced with Zacchaeus over his change of heart!

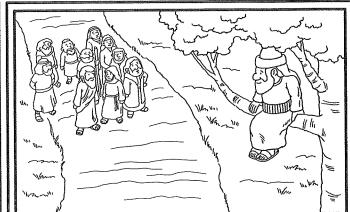

Jesus looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down at once. I must stay in your home today."

Zacchaeus promised to give half his possessions to the poor, and to pay pack four times what he'd stolen.

A rich tax collector named Zacchaeus wanted to see Jesus, but he was too short to see above the crowd.

Zacchaeus climbed a sycamore-fig tree so he could see Jesus pass that way.
