Call to Worship (Psalm)

I will extol you, my God and King, and bless your name forever and ever.

Every day I will bless you, and praise your name forever and ever.

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; his greatness is unsearchable.

One generation shall laud your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts.

Prayer of Praise and Adoration

Hymn No. 610

O For A Thousand Tongues to Sing

Scripture Reading

Exodus 15:2-16

Call to Confession

Unison Prayer of Confession

Loving god, you know our weaknesses.

Fearful of the future, we forget what you have done for us in the past.

We see scarcity where you supply abundance.

We complain when conditions challenge us.

We begrudge others their success,

allow envy to divide us, and live lives unworthy of the gospel.

Generous God, forgive us.

Help us to remember your wonderful works,

trust your gracious provisions, seek out your presence,

and strive side-by-side with others to serve you well.

(moment of silent prayer)

Declaration of Forgiveness

God's hand of mercy is stretched out to us, making a way through all that threatens us, to touch us with grace and hope.

We stand before our God, forgiven, singing praise to the One who turns our despair into joy, our fears into faith.

Passing of the Peace

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Hymn No. 702

Christ Be Beside Me

THE WORD

Welcoming the Children

The children's bulletin is available on the plpc.org and the Park Lake Facebook page.

Blessing of Children

tune - Hymn No. 535, Tallis Canon

Go with them, Lord, and guide their way, through this and every coming day,
That in Your spirit strong and true, their lives may be a gift to You.

Scripture Reading

Matthew 20:1-18, Romans 14:1-12

Sermon

Life Worthy of the Gospel

Dr. Dan DeBevoise

Affirmation of Faith

A Brief Statement of Faith

(PCUSA)

In life and in death we belong to God.

Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God,

and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel,
whom alone we worship and serve.

We trust in Jesus Christ, fully human, fully God.

Jesus proclaimed the reign of God:
preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives,
teaching by word and deed and blessing the children,
healing the sick and binding up the brokenhearted,
eating with outcasts, forgiving sinners,
and calling all to repent and believe the gospel.

Unjustly condemned for blasphemy and sedition,
Jesus was crucified, suffering the depths of human pain
and giving his life for the sins of the world.

God raised this Jesus from the dead,
vindicating his sinless life,
breaking the power of sin and evil,
delivering us from death to life eternal.

With believers in every time and place,
we rejoice that nothing in life or in death
can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

This text adapts part of a traditional Irish prayer associated with St. Patrick (see also no. 6). Such a prayer for protection is known as a lorica, from a Latin word for "breastplate" or "armor." It is set to a Gaelic melody that gained wide popularity in the 1970s.

This stirring hymn used at the opening of Riverside Church in New York in 1930 was penned by its widely-known and influential pastor, and it has gained a firm place in English-language hymnals around the world. The Welsh tune name honors the Rhondda Valley in Glamorganshire.
