

Bulletin Announcements

May 9, 2021

The Sanctuary flowers are given today, to the glory of God, in thanksgiving for the baptism of Sydney Diane, daughter of Hannah and Grant Patterson and granddaughter of Helen and Dan DeBevoise, and in gratitude to the commitment of the Church to walk alongside parents and families in raising their children to know and love Jesus.

Church Chat in May Via Zoom

We are addressing the question:
What makes for an alive and effective church of Jesus Christ in the 21st century?
Using the 7 Marks of Vital Congregations, we'll explore this question together.

- We could think about these as:
- | | |
|---|---------------------------------------|
| 1) Lifelong Discipleship with Tony Boada Davila. | ◇ Growing in Faith |
| 2) Intentional Authentic Evangelism with Susan Smey and Helen DeBevoise. | ◇ Sharing the Good News |
| 3) Outward Incarnational Focus with John Walker. | ◇ Doing Christ's Mission in the World |
| 4) Empowered Servant Leadership with Sue Thompson and John Walker. | ◇ Leading by Serving |
| 5) Spirit Inspired Worship with Sue Thompson and Dan DeBevoise | ◇ Worship is about God |

Below is the line up and leadership for May. Please join us! Zoom link will be in the Park Lake Up to Date.

May 19, 7 pm - Mark 6: Caring Relationships - led by Susan Smey and Helen DeBevoise

Significant relationships with other Christians matter because they teach us something about what God is like -- the One who can love us in spite of ourselves and who loves us passionately enough to suffer willingly on our behalf. - Kendan Creasy Dean and Ron Foster, The Godbearing Life

- What are the caring relationships in your life? What do they reveal about God?
- What is at stake if we do not practice caring relationships in the church?

Looking Ahead: June 2, 7 pm - Mark 7: Ecclesial Health - led by Kelsey Francis and Dan DeBevoise
