Call to Worship (Psalm 30)

O Lord my God, I cried to you for help, and you have healed me.

O Lord, you brought up my soul from Sheol, restored me to life from among those gone down to the Pit.

Sing praises to the Lord, O you His faithful ones,
And give thanks to His holy name.

For His anger is but for a moment;
His favour is for a lifetime.

Weeping may linger for the night,

But joy comes with the morning.

Come, let us worship God.

Call to Confession

Unison Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, we hear you calling. You have shown us hope and you offer us courage. We come to you as people who long to walk your ways of grace and love. But many times, God, we get discouraged. We are afraid of the difficult times; we grieve over the challenges that we have to face. The roads we walk weary us sometimes, and we let hopelessness get the best of us. Care for us on our journey, God. Help us to know that your love is always there, sustaining us, and surrounding us with care. Take our road-weary lives and make us to be your new people, shining in the darkness.

(silent prayers of confession)

Declaration of Forgiveness

God does hear our cries and forgives all who call upon Him in faith. God provides the resources for our healing and wholeness. Whoever trusts God will not be disappointed. You are forgiven. You are accepted. You are loved.

Thanks be to God; in Jesus Christ we are forgiven! Amen.

*Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles' Creed (Ecumenical)

(page 17 Glory To God hymnal)

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

This stirring hymn used at the opening of Riverside Church in New York in 1930 was penned by its widely-known and influential pastor, and it has gained a firm place in English-language hymnals around the world. The Welsh tune name honors the Rhondda Valley in Glamorganshire.

Reversing the usual order, this hymn began with the music rather than the words. The composer (from Singapore) sent this tune to the author (in New Zealand) to see what text it might inspire from her. She also suggested the tune name, a Maori phrase meaning "Holy Spirit."

Rejoice, the Lord Is King! 363

Descant

4 Re-joice in glo-rious hope! For Christ, the Judge, shall come

1 Re-joice, the Lord is King! Your Lord and King a-dore!
 2 Our Sav-ior, Je-sus, reigns, the God of truth and love;
 3 His king-dom can-not fail; he rules o'er earth and heaven;
 4 Re-joice in glo-rious hope! For Christ, the Judge, shall come and gath-er all the saints to their e-ter-nal home.

Re-joice, give thanks, and sing, and tri-umph ev-er-more.
 when he had purged our stains, he took his seat a-bove.
 the keys of death and hell are to our Je-sus given.
 and gath-er all the saints to their e-ter-nal home.

Lift up your heart; lift up your voice! Re-joice, a-gain I say, re-joice!

Lift up your heart; lift up your voice! Re-joice, a-gain I say, re-joice!

Each stanza of this enthronement text prepares for the final line of the refrain, based on Philippians 4:4. "Lord" is here a title of Christ rather than a reference to the undivided Trinity. The late 18th-century tune (first used with Psalm 148) captures the mood well.
