Call to Worship (Psalm 146)

Protect me, O God, for in you I take refuge.

I say to the Lord, "You are my Lord; I have no good apart from you."

The Lord is my chosen portion and my cup; you hold my lot.

The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; I have a goodly heritage.

Therefore my heart is glad, and my soul rejoices; my body also rests secure.

You show me the path of life. In your presence there is fullness of joy; in your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Great is Thy Faithfulness

Scripture Reading

Mark 13:1-8

pew Bible, NT, pg. 47

Call to Confession (1 John 1:8,9)

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive our sin and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. In humility and faith let us confess our sin to God.

Unison Prayer of Confession

Eternal God, we confess that we have failed to seek your will. You warn us of what is to come, but we ignore the signs of the times. You promise us a new creation, but we cling to the ruins of this world. Forgive us, God of grace. Wash away the stain of our sin and keep us faithful in love and in deed, while we await your coming in glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Declaration of Forgiveness

This is the promise of the Lord—that by the power of the Holy Spirit, God will transform our lives and remember our sin no more. In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven!

Thanks be to God!

Passing of the Peace

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

The Dedication of 2022 Stewardship Pledges

Let us pray. Almighty God, by your holy Word, all that we know has come into existence: our universe, our world, our lives, our loved ones, and all that we have and hold so dear. By your holy Word, you sent forth your Son to bring us salvation through the cross of death and resurrection. By your holy Word, you have called us together to be a Church of love and service in the world. By your holy Word, we know that we live in grace and hope. Keep us ever close to your Word, that it might be written on our hearts.

We commit our lives to you, O God.

Help us to grow in faith and love toward you, so that we might always live in trust and hope.

We commit our hearts to you, O God.

Center us in routines that keep us close to you, O Lord. Center us in weekly worship.

We commit our daily living to you, O God.

Center us in daily prayer.

We commit our prayer time to you, O God.

Center us in knowledge of your Holy Scripture.

We commit our minds to you, O God.

Center us in the mission of the church.

We commit our outreach to you, O God.

Center us in lives of thankful giving and loving for all the blessings which you have poured out upon us.

We commit our lives to you, O God.

By your word, O Lord, guide our lives, forgive our sins, inspire our thoughts, shape our attitudes, lighten our darkness, give us eternal hope, and fill our hearts with joy, assuring us of your constant presence, until you bring us at last into the glories of your heavenly kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Today in worship we are dedicating our 2022 Stewardship pledges. During the final hymn you are invited to bring your pledge forward to the chancel and place it in a basket. Additional pledge cards are available in the pews. If you would like more information about making a financial pledge to Park Lake for 2022 please contact the co-pastors or the financial secretary, Linda Castle.

*Or "Great is thy faithfulness, O God, Creator."

Written as a meditation on Lamentations 3:22-23, this text is one of the few hymns among the 1200 poems by this Methodist writer and pastor that has gained much currency. The tune that appears here was composed especially for these words, and the pairing has proved enduring.

694 Great God of Every Blessing

1 Great God of ev - ery bless - ing, of faith - ful, lov - ing care,
 2 Your Word is our sal - va - tion, the source of end - less grace,
 3 Your Spir - it is our teach - er, the light that guides our search, you are the fount of good - ness, the dai - ly bread we share.

 in death and life ex - tend - ing your cov - e - nant em - brace.
 trans - form - ing bro - ken peo - ple in - to the ho - ly church.

How can we hope to thank you? Our praise is but a start:
 In Christ we are one bod - y; each mem - ber has a part:
 For feed - ing us with mer - cy, for wis - dom you im - part:

sin - cere - ly and com - plete - ly I of - fer you my heart.

Written for the 500th anniversary of John Calvin's birth, this text sums up his liturgical theology, ending each stanza with his motto: Cor meum tibi offero, Domine, prompte et sincere. By moving from plural to singular the stanzas show how corporate faith becomes personal piety.

Take My Life

697

1 Take my life and let it be con-se - crat - ed, Lord, to thee;
 2 Take my hands and let them move at the im - pulse of thy love;
 3 Take my voice and let me sing al-ways, on - ly, for my King;
 4 Take my sil - ver and my gold; not a mite would I with-hold;

take my mo - ments and my days; let them flow in take my feet and let them be swift and beau - ti - take my lips and let them be filled with mes - sa - take my in - tel - lect and use ev - ery power as cease - less praise; let them flow in cease - less praise.

 ful for thee, swift and beau - ti - ful for thee.
 ges from thee, filled with mes - sa - ges from thee.
 thou shalt choose, ev - ery power as thou shalt choose.

5 Take my will and make it thine;
 it shall be no longer mine.
 Take my heart, it is thine own;
 it shall be thy royal throne,
 it shall be thy royal throne.

6 Take my love; my Lord, I pour at thy feet its treasure store;
 take myself and I will be
 ever, only, all for thee,
 ever, only, all for thee.

This hymn of consecration radiates from the repeated word "take," resulting in a remarkably full survey of a person's attributes and possessions and giving weight to the "all" at the end. The composer of the tune was influential in the renewal of Reformed hymnody in French.
