Come Into God's Presence

GTG hymnal #413

Call to Worship: (Psalm 35)

Your steadfast love, O LORD, extends to the heavens, your faithfulness to the clouds.

How precious is your steadfast love, O God! All people may take refuge in the shadow of your wings.

They feast on the abundance of your house, and you give them drink from the river of your delights.

For with you is the fountain of life; in your light we see light.

O continue your steadfast love to those who know you, and your salvation to the upright of heart!

Call to Confession

Unison Prayer of Confession

God of glory and grace, we confess our sins.

The psalmist declares, in your light we see light.

But we turn away from the truth of your light, distracted by so many other things.

We fail to see the your signs around us all the time:

in the beauty creation, in the gift of each day, in the presence of other people.

We are so worried and distracted by what we want and think we need, that we fail to see the abundance of your mercy and love for us.

We get caught up in anger and frustration, and ignore the guidance of your will for us.

We want dramatic and exciting experiences, and miss the gentle whisper of your Holy Spirit to us.

Lord forgive us. Reveal to us your glory and renew us in your grace.

(moment of silent prayer)

Declaration of Forgiveness

The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting. I declare to you, in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven. May the God of mercy, who forgives you all your sins, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Thanks be to God! Response

THE WORD

Welcoming the Children

Following the time on the steps, children are invited to pick up a lap desk from the west side of the chancel and go sit on the floor near their families. This is PRAYground time. They have coloring and activity pages, as well as other supplies, allowing them to continue exploring today's gospel message. A PRAYground 'host teacher' will be available to help answer questions and provide needed supplies.

Franz Liszt used this melody for a "Crusaders' March" in an oratorio, but this hymn had nothing to do with the Crusades. No record of the German text exists before the middle of the 17th century or of the Silesian folk melody before the first half of the 19th century.

The central image of the potter and the clay in this text comes from Isaiah 64:8 (and there is a similar reference in Jeremiah 18:1-6), while the petition for a changed heart is similar to Psalm 51:10. Such readiness to do God's will is a significant feature of the spiritual life.

The pace and diversity of modern life often hinder us from remaining vulnerable to our emotions and to the humanness of other people. This prayerful text to be open to such joys and pains draws on Ezekiel 11:19 and 36:26 in stanza one and echoes Jeremiah 31:33 in stanza two.
