Call to Worship

Hosanna! Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord!

Hosanna! Rejoice for the Lord is in our midst.

He comes with joy and hope.

He comes to set us free from fear.

Hosanna!

Hosanna! Glory to God in the Highest Heaven.

Prayer of Praise and Adoration

Call to Confession

Unison Prayer of Confession

God, our creator and savior,

We join the disciples of the ages in shouting your praises.

But we often live in ways that don't reflect your will.

We sing easily of your greatness, but living faithfully is often beyond us.

We speak easily of our salvation, yet sin is still close and real, daily leading us away from you.

We treat each other with suspicion and judgment, rather than love and grace.

Have mercy on us.

Ride into our hearts with healing grace.

Forgive what we have done and who we have been.

Lord, save us. Hosanna! (moment of silent prayer)

Declaration of Forgiveness

God does not turn away when we fail to be faithful. God does not reject us when we do not trust fully.

God continues to love us, to forgive us, to restore us.

It is God who helps us; it is God who saves us. Thanks be to God.

Passing of the Peace

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

THE WORD

Welcoming the Children

Following the time on the steps, children are invited to pick up a lap desk from the west side of the chancel and go sit on the floor near their families. This is PRAYground time. The children are provided with coloring and activity pages, as well as other supplies, allowing them to continue exploring today's gospel message.

Hymn No. 487 verses 1&5

These Treasured Children

*(v1) These treasured children present now, are bound to us by sacred vow:
with love, we make a heartfelt claim to welcome them in Jesus' name.*

*(v.5) Then, tender God, each child embrace; God give them blessings, grant them grace.
Surprise them, God with wonders still, and gently guide them to your will.*

*Affirmation of Faith

Philippians 2:4-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name
that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

to Refrain

These stanzas for Palm Sunday have been selected and translated from a much longer Latin poem written by a bishop who was the leading theologian in Charlemagne's court. They are sung to a 17th-century German chorale, as adapted for these words in the mid-19th century.

This familiar text from the beginning of the 18th century grew out of Isaac Watts's desire to give Christians the ability to sing about gospel events. It is set here to a very restrained tune from the early 19th century inspired by the patterns of Gregorian chant.
