Call to Worship (Psalm 85)

Show us your steadfast love, O Lord, and grant us your salvation.

Surely his salvation is at hand for those who fear him, that his glory may dwell in our land.

Steadfast love and faithfulness will meet; righteousness and peace will kiss each other.

Faithfulness will spring up from the ground, and righteousness will look down from the sky.

The LORD will give what is good, and our land will yield its increase.

Righteousness will go before him, and will make a path for his steps.

Call to Confession

Unison Prayer of Confession

Heavenly Father, when we get tired it is easy to become apathetic:

forgive us for getting run down and turning away from the burdens other people carry.

When we are afraid it is easy to see others as fearful:

forgive us for judging people unfairly without really knowing who they are.

When we feel hurt it is tempting to lash out in anger:

forgive us for returning insults with insults, for responding to anger with anger,

for answering violence with violence.

Help us to live our lives rooted and grounded in Jesus and follow his way. (time of silent prayer)

Declaration of Forgiveness (Colossians 2:12-14)

Hear the good news. When you were buried with Jesus in baptism, you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised Jesus from the dead. And when you were dead in sins, God made you alive together with Jesus, when he forgave us all our sins, erasing the record that stood against us with its legal demands. He set this aside, nailing it to the cross.

Thanks be to God! In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

Passing of the Peace

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

THE WORD

Welcoming the Children

Following the time on the steps, children are invited to pick up a lap desk from the west side of the chancel and go sit on the floor near their families. This is PRAYground time. The children are provided with coloring and activity pages, as well as other supplies, allowing them to continue exploring today's gospel message.

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
And in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

1 There's a wide-ness in God's mer-cy, like the wide-ness
2 For the love of God is broad-er than the mea-sures

of the sea. There's a kind-ness in God's jus-tice, of the mind. And the heart of the E-ter-nal flect thanks-giv-ing for the good-ness of our Lord.

These stanzas, excerpted from quite a few more, offer a reminder that the model for our dealings with others should be God's generosity rather than limited human tolerance. The text is effectively set to a broad and sturdy Dutch folk melody, probably from the 17th century.
