Bless the Lord

Call to Worship (Psalm 98)

O sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things.

His right hand and his holy arm have gotten him victory.

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth; break forth into joyous song and sing praises.

For the Lord is coming to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity.

Call to Confession

Unison Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, You call us to faithful living, giving ourselves to you and to one another after the example of Jesus.

Yet sin prevents us from following your directions.

We pursue our own goals, worship our own gods, and place our hope in things that cannot last.

Wash us anew. Forgive us again. Give us ears to hear your call and faith to follow where Christ leads.

(Time of silent prayer)

Declaration of Forgiveness

God is creating new heavens and a new earth; the former things shall not be remembered.

They shall not even cross God's mind. Be glad and rejoice forever in what God is creating: newness of life.

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven and reconciled to God and to one another.

Thanks be to God!

*Hymn of Response No. 582      Glory to God, Whose Goodness Shines on Me

Passing of the Peace

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

THE WORD

Scripture Reading

Luke 21:1-4

pew Bible, N.T. pg. 80

Welcoming the Children

Following the time on the steps, children are invited to pick up a lap desk from the west side of the chancel and go sit on the floor near their families. This is PRAYground time. The children are provided with coloring and activity pages, as well as other supplies, allowing them to continue exploring today's gospel message.

Hymn No. 188

Jesus Loves Me!

*Jesus loves me this I know, for the Bible tells me so, little ones to him belong they are weak but he is strong.
Yes, Jesus loves me! Yes, Jesus loves me! Yes, Jesus loves me! The Bible tells me so.*

Dedication of Stewardship Pledges

Let us pray. Almighty God, by your holy Word, all that we know has come into existence: our universe, our world, our lives, our loved ones, and all that we have and hold so dear. By your holy Word, you sent forth your Son to bring us salvation through the cross of death and resurrection. By your holy Word, you have called us together to be a Church of love and service in the world. By your holy Word, we know that we live in grace and hope.

Keep us ever close to your Word, that it might be written on our hearts.

We commit our lives to you, O God.

Help us to grow in faith and love toward you, so that we might always live in trust and hope.

We commit our hearts to you, O God.

Center us in routines that keep us close to you, O Lord. Center us in weekly worship.

We commit our daily living to you, O God.

Center us in daily prayer.

We commit our prayer time to you, O God.

Center us in knowledge of your Holy Scripture.

We commit our minds to you, O God.

Center us in the mission of the church.

We commit our outreach to you, O God.

Center us in lives of thankful giving and loving for all the blessings which you have poured out upon us.

We commit our lives to you, O God.

By your word, O Lord, guide our lives, forgive our sins, inspire our thoughts, shape our attitudes, lighten our darkness, give us eternal hope, and fill our hearts with joy, assuring us of your constant presence, until you bring us at last into the glories of your heavenly kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(During the last hymn you are invited to bring your stewardship pledge forward and place it in the basket on the steps)

name be sung through ev-ery land, in ev-ery tongue.
 voic-es raise and fill the world with joy-ful praise.
 shore to shore, till suns shall rise and set no more.

Harmony

Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia!

Because Psalm 117 contains only two verses, Watts's paraphrase had only two stanzas. Most later hymnals have created or borrowed additional stanzas, like the one included here, to enlarge the hymn. Perhaps the best solution is found by adding Alleluias, as this tune invites.

Take My Life

697

1 Take my life and let it be con-se - crat - ed, Lord, to thee;
 2 Take my hands and let them move at the im - pulse of thy love;
 3 Take my voice and let me sing al-ways, on - ly, for my King;
 4 Take my sil - ver and my gold; not a mite would I with-hold;

take my mo - ments and my days; let them flow in take my feet and let them be swift and beau - ti - take my lips and let them be filled with mes - sa - take my in - tel - lect and use ev - ery power as cease - less praise; let them flow in cease - less praise.

 ful for thee, swift and beau - ti - ful for thee.
 ges from thee, filled with mes - sa - ges from thee.
 thou shalt choose, ev - ery power as thou shalt choose.

5 Take my will and make it thine;
 it shall be no longer mine.
 Take my heart, it is thine own;
 it shall be thy royal throne,
 it shall be thy royal throne.

6 Take my love; my Lord, I pour
 at thy feet its treasure store;
 take myself and I will be
 ever, only, all for thee,
 ever, only, all for thee.

This hymn of consecration radiates from the repeated word "take," resulting in a remarkably full survey of a person's attributes and possessions and giving weight to the "all" at the end. The composer of the tune was influential in the renewal of Reformed hymnody in French.
